ECOVACS Antibacterial Filter for T90, X12

Description

The ECOVACS antibacterial filter DFI032165 effectively captures fine dust, pollen, pet hair, allergens, and particles as small as 0.3 μm , helping to maintain cleaner air in the home. The silver ion (Ag^+) coating eliminates up to 99.9% of bacteria, mold spores, and other microorganisms, reducing their proliferation and the formation of unpleasant odors. The multilayer construction ensures high filtration efficiency with low air flow resistance, allowing the robot to maintain full suction power without additional strain on the motor. Additionally, the external mesh captures larger debris, such as hair or dust bunnies, protecting the main filtering element and extending its lifespan. An added advantage is the flexible seal that ensures a tight fit of the accessory to the dust container. The set includes 2 filters.
