Sunnylife 2-in-1 Silicone Cover without Sunshade

Product Description

The Sunnylife 2-in-1 silicone cover is a practical accessory designed for controller users seeking to effectively safeguard their device while enhancing operational comfort. Its construction combines the functions of a protective cover with an anti-glare feature, thereby shielding both the screen and controller from mechanical damage and minimising light reflections during outdoor use. The thicker sunshade cover has been further reinforced, ensuring it maintains its proper shape and does not deform even following frequent use. It is important to note that the design does not impede screen visibility and permits comfortable operation of the device under all conditions.
