Sunnylife base for Insta360 X5 camera

Description

The Sunnylife silicone base for the Insta360 X5 camera allows you to securely mount your equipment both in a vehicle and on flat surfaces. Strong adhesive tape on the bottom increases grip, which translates into greater stability during recording. The base design allows the camera to be charged in an upright position, which makes it easier to organise your space and protects the housing and lens from contact with the ground. Soft silicone protects the camera surface from scratches while ensuring stability during use.
